Rainforest Action Network delivers results!

That's why The Wall Street Journal called us:

“.. some of the most savvy environmental agitators in the business.”

Rainforest Action Network (RAN) was established in 1985 and has offices in San Francisco, CA and Tokyo, Japan. Rainforest Action Network campaigns for the forests, their inhabitants and the natural systems that sustain life by transforming the global marketplace through education, grassroots organizing, and non-violent direct action. RAN works in alliance with environmental and human rights groups around the world, including Indigenous forest communities and non-governmental organizations in rainforest countries.

We've helped protect millions of acres of forests in Canada, Indonesia, Brazil, Chile and beyond. But much more needs to be done. For our society to truly break its oil addiction, protect endangered forests, and promote human rights and sustainable finance, everyone must get involved.

Contributions are used to support all Rainforest Action Network activities.
